BLACK HISTORY MONTH CELEBRATION

ALL EVENTS ARE FREE FOR MORTON COLLEGE STUDENTS

BLUES HARMONICA
Tuesday, February 3, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. - Noon in Student Union

WILLIE DIXON’S BLUES HEAVEN FOUNDATION presents a workshop that will educate you on the history of the Blues and the beautiful music of the harmonica and also teach you how to play the Blues on a Harmonica. "First 25 students will receive a free harmonica!

ROMARE BEARDEN’S ART WORK
Wednesday, February 11, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. - 11:00 a.m. in Student Union

Learn about Romare Bearden’s life and his artwork. He is noted as one of the premiere American artists of the 20th century as his art depicts personal memories and the African-American experience. In this workshop, we will touch on Romare Bearden’s life, the development of his collage style, and the history.

NIAMBI’S HOUSE
AFRICAN AMERICAN STORYTELLING & SONGS
Thursday, February 19, 2015 at 9:00 a.m. - Noon in Student Union

Embark on an educational field trip to the DuSable Museum of African American History. Watch “Our Story”, a live performance that integrates music and Black history, in a way that makes learning fascinating, meaningful, and enjoyable!

Departing Morton College at 9:00 a.m. and returning approximately at noon.

LANGSTON HUGHES:
AMERICAN DREAMS AND THE BLUES
Wednesday, February 25, 2015 at 11:00 a.m. - Noon in Student Union

This program will feature selected poems by the African American poet Langston Hughes, a passionate writer whose work reflects his vision of America and what he called “the genius of the blues.” Come experience this poetry reading and feel the music in his words.

RSVP Required by February 12, 2015 at rodolfo.yanez@morton.edu

Questions? Contact the Student Activities office at (708)656-8000, ext. 2419